Whigs, 14; democrats, 10. THE RIOT IN WILLIAMSBURG.

ONE MAN DIED FROM HIS INJURIES. The fearful riot which occurred at the polls in the Fourteenth ward on Tuesday afternoon has resulted in the death of one estimable citizen, and another, it is thought, cannot survive.

Mr. Wm. Henry Harrison, an ex-member of Engine Company No. 3, who was so badly beaten about the head, died yesterday morning about two o'clock. Mr. Harrison was a sparmaker by trade, about forty-two years of age, and leaves a wife and family to mourn his untimely end. At the time the riot commenced he was on his way to Greenpoint, and received his injuries in en-deavoring to rescue Deputy Sheriff Silkworth, upon whom the attack was made. The funeral will take place from the residence of the family in Eighth street, near South Second street, this afternoon, and will be attended by Engine Companies Nos. 3 and 8, and members of other companies, and the Deputy Sheriffs.

Mr. John H. Smith, a member of No. 3, is injured, it is believed, beyond recovery. His skull was fractured by a blow from a club, while assisting to extricate Mr. Har-

Deputy Sheriff Silkworth is seriously injured about the body, and will be confined to his bed for some time. He was the first person attacked, having become obnoxious by challenging, and preventing illegal voting.

A company of artillery, and two companies of infantry, attached to the Thirteenth regiment, under Col. Abel Smith, were called out by Mayor Wall, and held in reading the control of ness until a late hour, at the Odeon. Two hundred and fifty special deputies from Brooklyn were also present.

About two thousand persons congregated in and about the Odeon, and the excitement was so intense that a fearful riot might have occurred but for the presence of

THE BESULT OF THE ELECTION.

[From the Albany Argus, Nov. 8.]

We were not unprepared, before the polls closed yesterday is this city, for some strange result here, if not throughout the State.

Those who were about the city could not fail to have observed that party differences and preferences were entirely obliterated and swallowed up in the intense desire on the part of democrats to defeat Seymour, the pet of the administration, and on the part of whigs to elect him, as the champion of the liquor interest, and to defeat their own Maine law candidate.

But we confess, though prepared, as we thought, for anything within the range of the extraordinaries, to our amazument to find, when the ballots were counted, how controlling and absorbing was this feeling on the one side and the other.

More than one half the whig vote of the city went over to reymour on the liquor issue, while nearly the entire damocratic vote, we are obliged to state, was thrown for Ulman, a small portion only going for Seymour on the liquor question.

One of the most remarkable incidents of the day was the large number of German votes polled for Ulman. In every district in the city Irish adopted citizens did the same thing, to the utter astonishment of all beholders. The Ulman vote in this city is not more than three-fourths native born. It is clear that the whigs made nothing by representing Ulman as a foreigner.

The scattering returns received last night and this morning indicate equally strange results in the State. They will be found in our telegraphic columns. They tell their own stery.

This has been, as was predicted, altogether a curious

This has been, as was predicted, altogether a curious election.

We are not, at this writing, even out of the woods on Governor. It is probable that in this county, Mr. Seymour has a considerable majority. It is impossible to determine, from the results before us, who is elected, therefore we cannot, as we expected, answer the questions—"Who killed Cock Robin'." Perhaps Ullman is the man; possibly Clark; may be Seymour. All is confusion. We will not even predict the result. We confess to much surprise, however, at the formidabe strength of the new element of Know Nothingism.

In this county, so far as Congress is concerned, the result is as we predicted it would be, ovenshelmingly in favor of Mr. Sage. His majority will not be much if any below four thousand. All classes, adopted citizens and know Nothings, whigs and democrats, contributed to this unprecedented majority; though Know Nothing tickets were voted in different parts of the county both for Messrs. Clum and Cook in the strife between them. Mr. Sage's majority must be some two thousand over both his competitors combined.

[From the Albany Evening Journal, Nov. 8.]

It is not possible, from the returns before us, to form even rational conjecture in regard to results. Nothing can be assumed from former elections. Nearly all the old political landmarks are obliterated. Of all parties there has been a regular "smash up." In most of the large cities and towns there has been a complete Know Nothing stampede. Along the line of the New York and Eric Railroad, from Broome county west, pretty much everybody "switched off the track."

THE ELECTION IN OTHER STATES.

NEW JERSEY ELECTION. FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Cape May, Cumberland, and Salem counties give Clawson 2,787, Milford 2,286, Haselton, native, 2,319— Gloucester, Camden and Atlantic to hear from. Warren county gives Lilly, dem., for Congress, 650

Hunterdon county—250 majority for Bishop. Camden county gives Clawson, for Congress 1,444 ma-jority. Gloucester, 40 majority.

ILLINOIS ELECTION.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8, 1854. Chicado, Nov. 8, 1834.

In this city and county, as far as heard from, Woodforth, the republican candidate for Congress, has 1,039 majority over all. Miller, the whig candidate for State Treasurer, has 1,446 majority, and the other towns in the county will only increase these figures. Both are doubtless elected.

Morton, the whig candidate for Congress in the Third district, is also probably elected.

WISCONSIN ELECTION.

MILWAURIE, Nov. 8, 1854.
To Congress, Wells, democrat, is re-elected in the First district, and Washburn, republican, in the Second district. As far as bas been heard from, the republicans elect two State Senators, and six Assemblymen, and the

The anti-Nebraska and Know Nothings have a majority in the Alton district. Yates, whig, is re-elected to Congress in the Springfield district.

Important from Mexico.

By this arrival we have dates from Vera Cruz to the 12d, and from the city of Mexico to the 18th inst.

The following is the list of passengers by the Orizaba:

—8. Fischel, lady and three children; Lewis Perle and amily; D. Ramon Valdez and family; T. O'Haran, M. Muller, Juan Gillico, S. Falconnet, J. Toledano, J. Curtis, F. de P. Falconnet, Capt. M. J. Panero, M. Hill, and 23 in steerage.

The most important intelligence we find is a confirmation of the reported difficulty between General Yanez, the hero of the fight at Guayamas, and President Santa. Anna. Yanez has been removed from command, and is to be tried by a court of inquiry. He is charged in the first place with having countenanced the enlistment of Frenchmen by the Mexican Consul at San Francisco, without authorization from the government, and allowed that after the triumph over Count Boulbon, Yanez treated the prisoners too leniently, allowing zome of the guilty to re-embark, pardoning others, and not chastising with sufficient promptness the remainder.

The papers are full of rumors of a ministerial crisis—a change in the cabinet and policy of the government, some of a papers—especially the Universal, which is the organ of the conservative party—deny and hoot at these rumors, and attribute the report of a few intriguants who pretend to call themselves conservators, and are not, and warn the conservative party to beware of giving credit to their cries of alarm. By a later date we see that the President has denied, through a circular to the governors of the several departments, The tresident states, also, that it is not his intention to hange or modify, in the least, the policy of his administration. It is not to be diaguised, however, that the rumored crisis created a great sensation and the wildes excitement in Mexico—for the official denish by government officers, published in the various mike-and-water journals of the city, abundantly prove this.

General Domingo Ramirez has been appointed Governor of Sconera, in place of the brave General Yanez, who was removed on suspicion of having comived at the attempt, on the part of the French, to get up a revoit in that department.

The bark Novidades, which lef armed brigands, before whom even the military fly or succomb.

The private papers of the unfortunate Count Raoussett de Boulbon have been collected by General Yanez. It is said that the papers do not show that a single Mexican has been compromised in the Count's schemes. Several letters written by the Count on the day previous to his execution, to his friends and relatives, are published—frem the tone of which we take it he died, as he himself says, "like a true Hiddigo." Santa Anna utterjudies www having ordered or connived at the collistment of Frenchmen in California for the Mexican army, and has, as previously stated, removed Yanez for admitting them into the country, and the Mexican consul at San Francisco for enlisting them. This is cool.

From all accounts, the Alvates revolution is losing in importance everywhere, and will soon dwindle down to the little end of hything.

On Wedne-day morning an inquest was held at the late residence of deceased, No. 60 West Broadway, before William O'Donnell, Coroner. The circumstances of this case are doubtless still fresh in the minds of our readers. although the particulars—rendered unusually distressing murder-are now for the first time detailed. passed between the third and fourth ribs, a little to the left of the medium line, and entered one of the cavities of the heart; the wound was the cause of death.

I live at 45 Jay street; I knew the deceased about six weeks; he was my cousin by an intermarriage of relatives; the deceased lind been in the city between six and reven weeks; it had come from Nashville; I called to see him on Sunday evening, and we walked out together through the city; we visited some of my relations, and returned to his brother's house in West Broadway about half-past six; deceased had drank with me frequently during the day; we left his brother's after remaining there about ten minutes, for the purpose of going to my brarding house in Jay street to supper; as we were going down Anthony street, in the direction of Hudson street, we met two persons coming along together, a man and a boy; the boy appeared to be about sixteen and was very much intoxicated; the deceased and I separated, in order to left them pass between us, when the boy staggered against me, and the man appeared to shove my companion; I do not recognize the man in the room; deceased then exclaimed, "Who are you;" 'I say you did," said the deceased; at this the man let his coat fall from his shoulders and rushed at deceased to strike him; I could not perceive any weapon in his hand; deceased threw -up his arm to defend himself, and attempted to return the blow; I cannot say that the blow took effect; at this time the boy rushed upon deceased and stabbed him; I saw him make a thrust at the breast of deceased, but did not see any weapon in his hand; I could not swear he had a weapon in his hand; it was then between six and seven o'clock, and was quite dark; the boy called out "Murder, murder," and the man who was with him ran into the street crying "Watch, watch;" the boy, after making the assault, fied towards the corner; deceased in the condition of the clothes of deceased; as he walked with the officer is the station house;" I man and the bey disappeared in the crowd that night at the Hospital; he said he knew the boy who had stabbed him, but did not know his name.

TESTISIONY OF HOWARD CLARK, POLICEMAN.

I reside at 184 Church street; I am attached to the fifth ward police district; on Sunday night has I was at my post, near No. 7 Anthony street, when a man and a boy passed me on the opposite side of the street; I could not recognize the man; there were some little girls near me at the time; one of them attracted my attention by saying; 'fit is a shame to see so young a boy in liquor;' the buy was much intexicated, and had hold of the man's arm; the man was sober I should judge, and appeared to be taking care of his companion; they walked before me, being about half a block ahead, towards West Brondway; my attention was then attracted by hearing, 'What did you run against me for?' or some similar expression; did not know who spoke; I hastenel across the street; a number of boys, who were assembled in the neighborhood, cried "M. P.," and "lay low," when the crowd immediately disappeared; the decased them said, 'I am stabbed;' I perceived blood flowing from the wound in his breast; I took him to the station house; I asked him if he knew who stabbed him; he said he would if he could see him; I then endeavored to elicit some information with regard to the persons who had committed the assault, but could learn nothing satisfactory; I could not swear that the man now in custody is the same who was with the boy on the night of the murder.

Our attention was then called for the first time to the murder.

Our attention was then called for the first time to the prisoner, a man named John Murphy, who was arrested to the crime. There on a charge of being an accessory to the crime. There was nothing remarkable in the appearance or conduct of this person, who conducted himself with propriety during the examination.]

TESTIMONY OF MARY HANLON.

I understand the nature of an oath; I am fifteen years of age; I reside at No. 7 Anthony street; about half-past six, on Sunday night, I was standing on the stoop of the house I live in, when I saw Edward Allen and John Murphy pass by, on the opposite side of the street; they were going towards West Broadway; Allen seemed to be much intoxicated; officer Clark came up soon after, and I said to him, "It is a shame to see so young a boy drunk;" the officer appeared to follow them up, and I went into the house; about twenty minutes afterwards I heard that a man was stabbed; I was well acquainted with Allen; I know Murphy very well, because he attended a stable at No. 18 Anthony street, and used to drive a coach; it was usual for me to see Murphy every day.

drive a conch; it was usual for me to see Murphy every day.

TEFTIMONY OF PRANCES CUNNERN.

I am nearly thirleen years of age; I live at No. 18 Anthony street; I was well acquainted with Edward Allen see have a seventeen years old; I have seen him drunk nearly every Sunday for six weeks; on last Sunday I saw him first between 10 and 11 o'clock A.

M.; he was in the yard of my father's house, with a number of other boys; he was then sober, and was engaged cutting a box with a knife; it was a peculiar knife, with a curved blade, about three and a half inches in length; at this time there was a boy asleep in the hay-loft, drunk; heard Allen say that the boy had money, and that he, Allen, would cut the guts out of the first boy that undertook to sound him; shortly afterwards Allen left the yard; I did not see him again until between four and five o'clock in the afternoon; he was then drunk; he wished to go up into the loft, but Murphy prevented him, because he had a lighted segar in his mouth; he appeared to be angry with Murphy when he left the yard; Murphy did not follow him; Murphy when he left the yard; Murphy did not follow him; Murphy sheard Allen try to get some of the boys to beat my brother; and when I heard the cry of "Watch," twenty minutes after. I thought they were beating him, and came into the street; I asked what the trouble was, and they told me Eddy Allen had slabbed a man.

Examined by a juryman—I know Edward Allen well; have seen him every Sanday, and frequently during the week; I saw him on the morning after the nurder; he appeared to be going to work; he was talking with a boy named Lucce; Lucce afterwards told me that he (Allen) had asked him if there were any persons looking after him, and had been told that the M. P.'s were after him; I do not know where Lucce lives; do not think he lives any where.

Catherine Alexander, the friend of the two girls al-

I do not know where Luces it is, any where.

Catherine Alexander, the friend of the two girls already examined, was then called, in order to corroborate the testimenty of her companions.

Paniel Brenif, a policeman, was also examined for the purposes of corroboration. This concluded the evidence, and the jury were then left to their deliberations.

THE VERDICT.

About five minutes elapsed, at the expiration of which the jury announced that they had come to a decision. The verdict was, that the deceased came to his death by a stab with a knife in the hands of Edward Allen, in Anthony street, on the evening of the 5th of November, 1854.

A warrant has been already issued for the apprehen-sion of Allen, who has hitherto contrived to elude the vigilance of the police.

SIR WM. BOYD TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN HOTEL, Nov. 8, 1854.

Six-As I have observed an offensive advertisement in our paper of to-day, and which, I presume, was inserted without your knowledge, relative to my having left the Clarendon Hotel, I feel that it is only justice to myself to explain the cause which induced me to quit that house On the night of the 26th of October last burglars having gotten into the house, a gentleman, residing in having gotten into the house, a gentleman, residing in the Fifth avenue, and myself, were robbed of our watches and money. Information was immediately given to the police, and, at the end of a week, I asked the propriotr. Mr. Putnam, what his intentions were mentioning that it was the custom in England for the landlord to replace such losses, and that so far as the watch was concerned, not caring about the money. I hoped that he would make it good. Mr. Putnam refused, and his language and bearing were so unsatisfactory that I discharged his bill, and went to the Metropolitan.

Whatever may be the opinions of the American people regarding the political government and institutions of England, I do not believe that they will either tolerate or encourage such abominable conduct. That when an English gentleman of distinction visits their country he is in the first instance to be robbed and plundered, and, in the second, that such conduct is to be followed up by inserting anonymous, insulting, and offensive advertisements. I have the honor to be, sir,

The Newfoundlander, published at St. John's, N. F., contains the following abstract of the cruise by the clip-per ship John Clemens, J. R. Lucky, master, in search of the missing boats of the Arctic. She was absent nine days, and experienced very heavy weather. Has been some eighty miles south of St. Peter's, and cruised over the ground carefully. Spoke many vessels, and desired them to keep a good look out. Saw a large chest, but was unable to get it on board; also a mattress, supposed to be made of India rubber, and filled with air, but could not secure it. Think the boats have been picked up by vessels bound outward.

Distressing Occurrence in Ohio.
FROBABLE MURDER BY A CALIFORNIAN.
[From the Cincimnat Enquirer. Nov. 5.]
We were informed last evening by Mr. Henry Fosdick, Jr., of Dayton, of the following particulars of a distressing occurrence which took place a few miles from Osborne, on the railroad between Dayton and Springfield, on Thursday evening last. It appears that about three years since a farmer named Wm. Ricketts left his family to reck his fortune in the gold mines of California. About seven months since Mrs. Ricketts received information from a person representing himself as coming direct from San Francisco, that her husband had died of chronic distribus. The wife believed the story and manifested much distress of mind upon the receipt of the intelligence. Her informant, whose name is Wn. T. Gaylord, analicated much sympathy for Mrs. R. in her becavement, and frequently visited her house to condobwith her in her affliction. The unsuspecting wife, appreciating the kindness of Gaylord, tendered him the hospitalities of her house and home. Gaylord, with an apparent indifference, declined the offer, but finally preposed to accept the same on conditions of marriage. The natonished Mrs. R. at first declined, but afterwards agreed to let the matter stand open until Gaylord should call again. In the interim, Gaylord abstracted from the pert of the same on conditions of marriage. The natonished Mrs. R. at first declined, but afterwards agreed to let the matter stand open until Gaylord should call again. In the interim, Gaylord abstracted from the pert of the first state of the same on conditions of marriage. The house of the first state distance of the union, and time for their marriage was set.

The day came, they were married, and by their marriage Mr. Gaylord came into possession of a farm, valued at several thousand dollars. Son Mier their marriage was set.
